

Celebrity interior designer Gauri Khan to launch her maiden rug collection in Paris

Bollywood superstar Shah Rukh Khan's wife, entrepreneur Gauri Khan, is on to big things professionally. The interior designer will showcase her first-ever collection of rugs at Paris in January, 2018.

Interior designer Gauri Khan debuts with Tropical Wonde' under Satya Paul banner at LFW 2015.(AFP File Photo)

Celebrity interior designer and entrepreneur Gauri Khan has designed her first collection of rugs, which will be launched at Paris in 2017. The wife of Bollywood superstar Shah Rukh Khan took to Twitter to share the exciting news.

“Designed my first collection for Jaipur Rugs that I’ll be launching in Maison Objet, Paris, January 2018,” Gauri tweeted on Tuesday. Maison & Objet is a professional trade fair dedicated to lifestyle, decoration and design.

Gauri also shared a photograph of herself sitting along with rural women artisans.

“Hand knotted by rural women artisans using wool and silk yarn, inspired by the rustic countryside of India,” she captioned the image.

Gauri is also the co-owner of the production house and distribution company Red Chillies Entertainment along with Shah Rukh.

In 2012, she launched her own line of furniture in partnership with The Charcoal Project. She has launched her brand new interior store here named Design Cell.

Earlier in 2017, Gauri even designed the nursery for filmmaker Karan Johar's twins Roohi and Yash.